

The Democratic State Convention of Ohio voted down the Wilmot Proviso, and threw overboard all the candidates for Governor proposed to them, who were suspected of all favoring the Free Soilers, and have given the nomination to Judge Wood, who refused to answer the questions proposed by the Free Soil Committee.

The Mexican papers announce the death of Pena y Pena, President ad interim of Mexico, at the time of concluding the treaty of peace with that country.

Sooner than be a modern Whig, we would say to corruption "thou art our father."—New Hampshire Patriot.

And thus tell the truth for once in the course of a pretty long lifetime.—Louisville Journal.

The New-York Cheap Postage Association are sending out petitions to be signed and forwarded to Congress. The Association forgot to name also the subject of Newspaper Postage. We hope that none of these petitions will be sent to Congress without an addition requesting the restoration of the Free newspaper law of 1845. Let every man who circulates a petition, add with a pen, the words, "and the free circulation of newspapers."—Bellows Falls Gazette.

A colored man at the west end says he goes for "dis union, hit or miss."—Boston Post.

The Berkshire Medical College, Pittsfield, Mass., was destroyed by fire on Thursday last.

S. M. Peleggill, newspaper agent, Boston, has commenced the publication of a paper called the Reporter, which will be devoted to the interests of the Press.

A Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says that several cases of rare old wine lately arrived at the capital for Mr. Bulwer, the new British Minister. We suppose he comes with full power to treat.

CLEMENS AND CARMEN.—These names are the original of the Union party of the South, both Whigs—origin Taylor Whigs.—Lowell Advertiser.

Two falsehoods are contained in the above short paragraph. Mr. Clemens is not a Whig, and has never pretended to be. He is a Loco Foco. Mr. Clemens was not "an original Taylor Whig." It is notorious that he exerted himself more than any Southern Whig to defeat the nomination of General Taylor at Philadelphia, not excepting Hon. John M. Botts. Mr. Clemens was an "original Scott Whig."—Boston Atlas.

The Jonathan Hunt who has "turned up" in Liverpool, is not the Jonathan who disappeared in New York.

RENOVALS.—Half a dozen Clerks and two boatmen have been dismissed at the Boston Custom House, and more removals are to follow, in order to reduce expenses. About one hundred have been removed in New York, for the same reason.

THE DRURY CASE.—The Supreme Court at New York have fixed the bail in the case of Drury senior and junior at $3000, on all the indictments, and they have obtained a writ.

THE word Poussin, in French, it is said means little chick.—Ex. Paper.

That is the reason he has gone home to receive his Past.

And the reason why the old hen of the Washington Union took him under her wing.—Lowell Journal.

DRADEFUL STEAMBOAT EXPLOSION.—The steamer St. Joseph, from New Orleans, left New York on the 23d ult., near the mouth of the Arkansas river. We regret to add that 15 persons were killed, and 38 were horribly scalded—many of whom have since died. At the time of the explosion the steamer South America was near at hand. Capt. Baker, of the St. Joseph, immediately haled the South America to board the wreck and take off the survivors, as his yawl was engaged in picking up those blown into the river. The passengers were mostly emigrants.

THE resolutions adopted last Spring by the Legislature of Connecticut, on the subject of Slavery, have been presented by the Speaker to the Georgia Legislature, and ordered by them to be returned to the Governor of this State.—New Haven Palladium.

The speech of General Cass is said to be a diluted edition of the message which he would have delivered.

It is said that "speculations" in California are the cause of Mr. Wetmore's defection. He is now defaulted to the amount of $181,000.

PRESIDENT TAYLOR was very bluntly asked by some southern gentlemen, a few days since, if he would veto the Wilmot Proviso, intimating at the same time that their support of him depended upon his answer. The answer was like the man, bold and straightforward. "Gentlemen," said he,

"I told the people when I came here, I would do the best I could. I intended to carry out that determination. If my administration does not meet their approbation, I cannot tell you. I shall act according to the dictates of my conscience, and therefore shall have nothing to regret. As to what you call the Wilmot Proviso, I can only say that I shall approve and execute such laws as the constitutional law-making power sees fit in its wisdom to adopt, whatever 'provisions' not in palpable violation of any known constitutional probability they may contain."

WONDERFUL CURE.—The Belfast (Me.) Journal tells of an old lady, who was always troubled with the asthma during the prevalence of East winds. After consulting physicians without success, her husband nailed the weather-cock with his head to the west, and she hasn't been troubled with the disorder since.

GEN. TAYLOR AND THE UNION.—The New York Evening Post says—"In his plan for putting down any treasonable proceeding on the part of the fanatics of the South, Gen. T. is understood to declare, that he will not ask the aid of a single State in the States lying north of Atlanta and Dixon's line."

DENIES THE "SOFT IMPERIMENT."—Governor Briggs, last week, attended a social entertainment at the handsome residence of Hon. Charles Hudson, in Lexington. His excellency (says a paper before us) was apparently a gratified spectator of the dance, in which he took no part, however, "for," says he good humoredly, "you know I am a Baptist, and the first Baptist lost his head by this amusement. I never danced," he continued, "in the same pleasant vein," and I will take occasion to contradict the story, (which is going the rounds of the papers) that a blacksmith's son in Berkshires once invited the daughter of a militia officer to a ball, and got refused in consequence of his low degree, and that the said blacksmith's son is now Governor of Massachusetts. I acknowledge the aneal, but positively ignore the pump."—Lowell Courier.

The trial of Prof. Webster, it has been decided, will commence on Tuesday, the 19th of March next.

A personal rencontre took place between Hon. L. C. Levin and Mrs. Henry Warren, on Friday. No particular harm done.

Mr. GOODRICH'S CONCERT, last evening, was very respectfully attended, and passed off much to the satisfaction of all present. Several of the songs were warmly cheered, and the instrumental part of the entertainment—on the piano and guitar—was particularly good.

The Mexican papers announce the death of Pena y Pena, President ad interim of Mexico, at the time of concluding the treaty of peace with that country.

Sooner than be a modern Whig, we would say to corruption "thou art our father."—New Hampshire Patriot.

And thus tell the truth for once in the course of a pretty long lifetime.—Louisville Journal.

The New-York Cheap Postage Association are sending out petitions to be signed and forwarded to Congress. The Association forgot to name also the subject of Newspaper Postage. We hope that none of these petitions will be sent to Congress without an addition requesting the restoration of the Free newspaper law of 1845. Let every man who circulates a petition, add with a pen, the words, "and the free circulation of newspapers."—Bellows Falls Gazette.

A colored man at the west end says he goes for "dis union, hit or miss."—Boston Post.

The Berkshire Medical College, Pittsfield, Mass., was destroyed by fire on Thursday last.

S. M. Peleggill, newspaper agent, Boston, has commenced the publication of a paper called the Reporter, which will be devoted to the interests of the Press.

A Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says that several cases of rare old wine lately arrived at the capital for Mr. Bulwer, the new British Minister. We suppose he comes with full power to treat.

CLEMENS AND CARMEN.—These names are the original of the Union party of the South, both Whigs—origin Taylor Whigs.—Lowell Advertiser.

Two falsehoods are contained in the above short paragraph. Mr. Clemens is not a Whig, and has never pretended to be. He is a Loco Foco. Mr. Clemens was not "an original Taylor Whig." It is notorious that he exerted himself more than any Southern Whig to defeat the nomination of General Taylor at Philadelphia, not excepting Hon. John M. Botts. Mr. Clemens was an "original Scott Whig."—Boston Atlas.

The Jonathan Hunt who has "turned up" in Liverpool, is not the Jonathan who disappeared in New York.

RENOVALS.—Half a dozen Clerks and two boatmen have been dismissed at the Boston Custom House, and more removals are to follow, in order to reduce expenses. About one hundred have been removed in New York, for the same reason.

THE word Poussin, in French, it is said means little chick.—Ex. Paper.

That is the reason he has gone home to receive his Past.

And the reason why the old hen of the Washington Union took him under her wing.—Lowell Journal.

DRADEFUL STEAMBOAT EXPLOSION.—The steamer St. Joseph, from New Orleans, left New York on the 23d ult., near the mouth of the Arkansas river. We regret to add that 15 persons were killed, and 38 were horribly scalded—many of whom have since died. At the time of the explosion the steamer South America was near at hand. Capt. Baker, of the St. Joseph, immediately haled the South America to board the wreck and take off the survivors, as his yawl was engaged in picking up those blown into the river. The passengers were mostly emigrants.

THE resolutions adopted last Spring by the Legislature of Connecticut, on the subject of Slavery, have been presented by the Speaker to the Georgia Legislature, and ordered by them to be returned to the Governor of this State.—New Haven Palladium.

The speech of General Cass is said to be a diluted edition of the message which he would have delivered.

It is said that "speculations" in California are the cause of Mr. Wetmore's defection. He is now defaulted to the amount of $181,000.

PRESIDENT TAYLOR was very bluntly asked by some southern gentlemen, a few days since, if he would veto the Wilmot Proviso, intimating at the same time that their support of him depended upon his answer. The answer was like the man, bold and straightforward. "Gentlemen," said he,

"I told the people when I came here, I would do the best I could. I intended to carry out that determination. If my administration does not meet their approbation, I cannot tell you. I shall act according to the dictates of my conscience, and therefore shall have nothing to regret. As to what you call the Wilmot Proviso, I can only say that I shall approve and execute such laws as the constitutional law-making power sees fit in its wisdom to adopt, whatever 'provisions' not in palpable violation of any known constitutional probability they may contain."

WONDERFUL CURE.—The Belfast (Me.) Journal tells of an old lady, who was always troubled with the asthma during the prevalence of East winds. After consulting physicians without success, her husband nailed the weather-cock with his head to the west, and she hasn't been troubled with the disorder since.

GEN. TAYLOR AND THE UNION.—The New York Evening Post says—"In his plan for putting down any treasonable proceeding on the part of the fanatics of the South, Gen. T. is understood to declare, that he will not ask the aid of a single State in the States lying north of Atlanta and Dixon's line."

DENIES THE "SOFT IMPERIMENT."—Governor Briggs, last week, attended a social entertainment at the handsome residence of Hon. Charles Hudson, in Lexington. His excellency (says a paper before us) was apparently a gratified spectator of the dance, in which he took no part, however, "for," says he good humoredly, "you know I am a Baptist, and the first Baptist lost his head by this amusement. I never danced," he continued, "in the same pleasant vein," and I will take occasion to contradict the story, (which is going the rounds of the papers) that a blacksmith's son in Berkshires once invited the daughter of a militia officer to a ball, and got refused in consequence of his low degree, and that the said blacksmith's son is now Governor of Massachusetts. I acknowledge the aneal, but positively ignore the pump."—Lowell Courier.

Married,

In this town, on the 5th inst., by Rev. S. G. Cox, Mr. W. B. Nicoll to Miss MARY A. GARNER, all of Middlebury.

Died,

In Bristol, Jan. 17, JANE ANN G., wife of Royal W. Fiske, aged 39 years.

In Monkton, Dec. 11, 1849, Mrs. SALLY DOTEN, aged 22 years.

In Hinsburgh, Dec. 1849, DANIEL NORRIS, Esq.—one of the first settlers, and a worthy citizen—aged 77 years.

In Hinsburgh, Jan. 29th, WILLIAM TRACY, Esq., formerly of Monkton, aged 70 years.

In South Lyon, Mich., Dec. 31, 1849, Mrs. PHILENA S. TISDALE, aged 30 years, wife of Doctor Denison Tisdale of that place, and young daughter of Mr. Moses C. and Mrs. Nancy Wiswell, of Orwell, Vt.

OAK HALL, BOSTON.—In no part of this country is the following interesting scene, where death is most sorrow in the heart of a family circle, never before visited by death, in the loss of children. Possessing, as the deceased did, many of those qualities that render a daughter truly beloved, and attractive to parents, and a friend esteemed—with a mind ever open to the claims of duty, and a spirit open to the claims of virtue, she was a true picture of Christian character, and a credit to her parents. Her death, however, has caused a deep grief to all her friends, and especially to her father, who, though a simple man, had a strong love for his only child, and a desire to see her happy.

The sudden death of this interesting青年, who had suffered much with severe attack of rheumatism in her hands, has been a source of great distress to her father, and to the rest of the family.

THE SPRING QUARTER commences on Wednesday, February 20th, under the charge of MRS. E. D. TISDALE, and MRS. JULIA STEVENS, Miss Lazarus & Bratt will give instruction on the Piano-Tuition as before, Board $12 per week, and found except LIGHTS. Rooms for those wishing it, at reasonable rates.

Applications for Board may be made to Mr. STEPHEN S. TISDALE, 303 Main Street, Shoreham, Feb. 11, 1850. 42-36.

BRADLEY'S

MUSICAL INSTITUTE

AND

BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES

CASTLETON,--Vt.

J. M. SLADE & CO.

MIDDLEBURY, Jan. 18, 1850. 39-4W.

SMOKED HAMS, in prime order, at

E. L. FULLER,

Middlebury, Jan. 28, 1850.

W. P. PEASE, Principal and Proprietor.

The subscriber would respectfully inform the public, that the above Institution is in a state of great prosperity, and receives many students from Europe, under several of the most distinguished Professors, and having taught novices of twenty-five years in this country, warrant him in saying that students will receive a thorough musical education, with superior advantages, at this Institution. An ample corps of Teachers is also engaged to teach the solid and ornamental branches.

TERMS.

Music on the Piano and Singing, (with use of new Piano) 8 hours per day, $12.00.

Guitar, 10.00

Organ, 12.00

Harp, 15.00

French Language, 4.00

German English Branches, 2.00

Latin & Greek, 4.00

Drawing, 4.00

Painting in Water, 4.00

Oil Painting, 8.00

Fine Drawing, 5.00

Birds, Twenty Five Dollars per quarter; and half the expense payable in advance.

The Institution is situated in one of the most delightful spots in Vermont, on elevated ground, at the foot of a beautiful mountain—half a mile south of the village, and can be reached at once from the road leading to Middlebury, containing about 100 acres, together with the buildings thereon. All the wood lot attached to the house, contains about 19 acres. The farm, including the residence, roads, and part of the purchase money can remain on Board and Mortgage, for a term of years.

THE FOLLY OF CONVINCING LETTER, AS TO THE EFFICACY OF DR. CORBETT'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED SYRUP OF SARASPARILLA.

Dr. CORBETT'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED SYRUP OF SARASPARILLA.